

Queensland Russian Community Centre & magazine 'Australian Lamp'

We are inviting poetry lovers to the campfire ceremony commemorating Marina Tsvetaeva's 100-year anniversary of her first book, and 25 years of the first Tsvetaeva's campfire in Tarusa

Program:

1. «My poems, like precious wines, will come your turn...»
- talk on Marina Tsvetaeva's work...
2. Reading from Marina Tsvetaeva and from your favourite authors.
3. Songs by guitar.
4. Intimate conversations 'by the fire'.
5. Meeting new friends.
6. Barbecue, salads, drinks

When: 31 October 2010 at 2 pm
Where: Brisbane River, Kangaroo Point Cliffs (Park River Side)

What to bring:

- Your sincere smile.
- Poems about love and life.
- Musical instruments, if you are singer.
- A folding chair for comfort while listening to poems and songs.
- Sausages or something nice to surprise barbecue fans and friends.
- Salads are welcome.
- Do not forget to bring some money. A wide range of pirozhki will be offered for sale.

For those who are not familiar with the area Alternative meeting place: 1.30 pm at St. Nicolas Cathedral (344 Vulture Street, Kangaroo Point) from where you will be guided to Kanagaroo Point cliffs – 400-500 metres walking distance.

Enquiries and signing up for reading:

3162 75 48 или 0401 219 193 Liudmila
3398 99 75 или 0431 761 669 Alla
3805 31 63 или 0437 022 225 Zhenya
0401 947 781 Zhanna

